

Supplemental Table S1. Sources of information from where individuals would have seen or heard about eye health or disease

Sources of Information
Magazines or newsletters
Daily or weekly newspapers
Educational pamphlets or brochures
Drugstore or supermarket
Television programs or commercials
Radio programs or commercials
Religious or social organizations
Online – on the Internet
At a doctor's office, clinic, or community health screening
At your office or workplace
From relatives or friends
From a health information hotline
Other (specify),”